

As a licenced radio amateur, I support the petition to require Morse Code at the General and Extra levels. I think the code requirements instill an understanding and appreciation of radio fundamentals and the principles of good radio communications.